

Mrs. M. C. Broughton

Funeral service for Mrs. Martha C. Broughton, 83, was held from the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the pastor, the Rev. E. E. Stevenson, officiating, and burial was made in the Prairie Grove cemetery with J. L. King of the Southern funeral service, in charge.

The choir, with Mrs. Wayne Stone accompanist sang "Nearer My God To Thee," and "Sweet Hour of Prayer." R. C. Lee sang, "Death Is Only A Dream," and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dorman sang, "When the Glory Bells Ring."

Pallbearers were R. H. Skelton, Guy Skelton, B. H. Slaton, J. J. Fidler, and D. N. McCornick. Misses Ruby Wilson, Pauline Harrison and Helen Fidler were in charge of the flowers.

Mrs. Broughton was the daughter of Mary Hobbs and William Atkisson. She was born near Farmington, March 24, 1848, and died at her home here at 2:35 o'clock Sunday morning, at the age of 83 years, nine months and two days. She was married to Wiley Broughton on October 13, 1887. Mr. Broughton died on March 26, 1910.

She united with the Methodist church at Farmington about 66 years ago, where she held her membership until recent years when she moved it to Prairie Grove. She was faithful to her duties in her home and the church, always attending services when her health would permit.

Out-of-town relatives here at the funeral were: C. A. Broughton. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper and family of Pierce City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walters and family of Heaven, Okla., Mrs. Nettie Thurman and son of Ada, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bayles and family of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Atkisson and family and Wilbur Horn of Fayetteville, Mo. and Mrs. John Turner of Westville, and Clifford Turner of Texarkana.
