Dan Broyles

November 1, 1937 - March 20, 2015

I Love You The Most

Your life has been a blessing
Our memories a treasure
You are loved beyond words
You are missed beyond measure
But the pain that you sit in
Has become all too much
God has planned in His will
For a time just as such
He saw your fatigue-
That a cure could not be
So he wrapped his arms around you
And said "come to Me"
I know that your pain is no more
And that your spirit is running free
But this ache that I feel in my chest
Keeps me wondering how can this be
Seems like just yesterday
That you pulled me in close
And whispered so softly
"I love you the most"
I cling to a hope of tomorrow
That I'll one day see you again
That I'll be reunited some day
With my best and oldest friend
I will never forget the man
That lived so deeply in me

But when I see you again in heaven
What a glorious sight that will be
