

Donald Lee Burnett, age 83, of Farmington, Arkansas, passed from this earth peacefully at his home on Sunday, December 8, 2024, surrounded by his loving family. Born on August 27, 1941, in Japton, Arkansas, he was the cherished son of Samuel F. and Ella J. (Drake) Burnett.

A devoted lifelong member of the First Baptist Church in Farmington, Donald served faithfully as a deacon and Adult Sunday School teacher. His commitment to his faith was evident through his active involvement in vacation Bible school and various children and youth programs. Despite the challenges he faced following an accident that left him paralyzed, Donald's unwavering faith in Christ was a testament to his strength and resilience.

Donald dedicated 36 years of service to the Campbell Soup Company in Fayetteville, Arkansas, where he worked diligently on the maintenance team until his retirement in 1996. An avid outdoorsman, he found joy in hunting, fishing, gardening, and landscaping.

He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, affectionately known as "Poppa Don" to his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Donald was preceded in death by his parents, his son Thomas Burnett, and his brothers Jerry and Roy Burnett.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Wanda Burnett; his son Timothy Burnett and wife Andrea of West Fork, Arkansas; his daughter Rebecca Roach and husband Max of Farmington, Arkansas; eight grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

I'm kind of homesick for a country
To which I've never been before.
No sad goodbyes will there be spoken
For time won't matter anymore.
Beulah land I'm longing for you
And some day on there I'll stand
There my home shall be eternal
Beulah land, sweet Beulah land
I'm looking now, just across the river
To where my faith, shall end in sight
There's just a few more days to labor.
Then I will take my heavenly flight.
Beulah land I'm longing for you
And some day on there I'll stand
There my home shall be eternal
Beulah land, sweet Beulah land
Beulah land, oh it's Beulah land
Oh Beulah land, sweet Beulah land
