Mary Joyce Butler

October 12, 1934 - February 1, 2014

Old pictures I've seen take me back to such a long way, what a wonderful life they show. I have been so blessed to get to know her, love her, and be a part of those pictures of her life. That's my Grandma!

Can you fathom how much she has done?

Can you imagine how much she saw? Well that's my Grandma!
Bed always ready to go, sheet clean, pillow fluffed, dinner made,
house cleaned, kids cared for, never in my life have I ever seen, or heard her get mad. What a woman! Like magic ever task was done Ta Da!!
Yeah, that's my Grandma! Almost a century of life she has dedicated to God and us 3 meals a day for whoever crossed the threshold of her door she never missed beans, hot rolls, and coleslaw Well that's my Grandma! A prankster for the new comers in the family with dirty socks, old shoes, and a very used up bra Once again that's my Grandma!
Such a caring woman. She is the epitome of an angel The top of Heaven is for her, in life's fight she won.... There's no draw Yeah that's my Grandma!
I love her with all of my heart and always will I wish I had just 30 seconds to thank Mr. And Mrs. Hill.... Ma and Paw For making me such a great woman. My Grandma. She is the only lady that has and will ever be my Grandma
She has been by my side from day one, never left my side
She is the reason that I have my life today She prayed for me when the world said no way she didn't see any flaw Yeah that's my Grandma!
I have had the best Grandma that any Grandson could ever ask for.
