

Jeanine Elise Cawley

86, a resident of Fayetteville and previously of Prairie Grove passed away February 14, 2016 at Willard Walker Hospice Home in Fayetteville. She was born June 22, 1929 in Hastings, Nebraska, the daughter of Marshall and Lillian Seberg Whitcomb.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Prairie Grove.

She was preceded in death by her husband William Cawley, her parents, one sister Pat Sterner of Oregon, and one son-in-law Clay Dizney of Prairie Grove.

Survivors include one daughter Linda Dizney of Prairie Grove; two sons Steven Cawley of Fayetteville and David Cawley and wife Debbie of Rogers; two sisters Karen Johnston of California and Marsha Pettijohn of Oregon; four grandchildren Sean Dizney of Prairie Grove, Brian Dizney and wife Heather of Tonitown, Darren Cawley and Fiance' Alyson White of Rogers and Denise Andert and husband Derek of Rogers; three great-grandchildren Emily, Colton, and Brooklyn.

She loved to sew, crochet, garden, camp, and read. She enjoyed her time in the kitchen baking cookies for her family, and no one could match her cinnamon rolls. Her threats to get out her wooden spoon always kept her grandchildren and great-grandchildren in line, though she rarely ever used it. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was active in her church where she enjoyed singing in the choir and working in the baby nursery.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Cawley family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place,
He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering; He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered,

"Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
