DEATH OF MRS. CHOATE

Mis Mary Cheate, wife of Winton Choate who ives near Salem Spings, died Monday after a lingering a ness of neuralgua and nervous prostration. Mrs Choate bad been almost a lifetong Christain, always a friend and helper in need or suffering. For several years dest she had been threa ened w h do sa'and bad r mained much at home, where she was to in ting angel to her Itte grandchildren, and to a l who came to cer for counsel or h lo. At the time of her death she wa- about 65 wears old and had lived in the same bome almost in the call war. Dec eris survived by her husband and three children all growe and married,

The funeral service were conducted at the White Rock cemetry in charge of Rev. J. K, Polk Crozier in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved.