

Lorene Cole (Hodges)

91, passed away on July 12, 2024, in Westville, Oklahoma. Lorene was born on March 20, 1933, in Prairie Grove, Arkansas to Walter William and Ollie Amelia Hodges. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Troy Lee, one son, Scotty Cole, one grandson, Daniel Wayne Cole, six brothers, R B Hodges, Floyd, Roy, Fred, Elmer and Delmar Hodges. Four sisters, Enid Hodges, Nelda McClain, Lillian Baker and Della Mourning. She left behind four children, Mary Young (Garland), Debbie Norman (Joe), Billy Clyde, Tony (Mary) and a host of relatives.

Lorene found joy in working puzzles, sewing, and playing cards. These hobbies were not just pastimes for her; they were ways through which she connected with family, creating lasting memories and cherished moments. Her love for these activities was infectious, often bringing people together for an afternoon of fun.

Her presence will be profoundly missed by all who knew her.

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under
the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck
up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast
away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Family

Written with life's ink by the hand
Of a child, a mother, a father,
Our lives unfold creating Chapter after chapter a captivating history
And dreaming of days yet to come.
Each chapter is more diverse
than the last,
Although not one is more
significant than another.
These souls are tied together
revealing
God's true plan --
love without condition.
United in His love, Family is the Memory of Yesterday, the Reality of Today, and
The Hope of tomorrow.
