

William Thomas (Bill) Cole departed this life on July 4th, 2025, at his home, surrounded by his family. He was born on September 25th, 1936, in Texas to Wilma Drake and Thomas Cole. Bill was a loving husband, devoted father, and proud grandfather.

He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Jana Fae (Glenn) Cole; his daughters, Beverly Miller and her husband, William, and Rebecca "Becky" Spearman; his grandchildren, Chris and Nick Miller, and Tiffany and Whitney Spearman; as well as three great-grandsons, Christian, Dante, and Allen; and one sister Dixie Cole.

Bill lived out his lifelong dream of being a dairy farmer. He found great joy working with his cows and spending time with family and friends. He especially loved attending gospel singings and was known for his cheerful nature and playful sense of humor. A faithful member of his church, Bill taught Sunday school, sang in the choir, and cared deeply about sharing his faith. He wanted to be sure his family and friends knew Jesus so they could meet again in heaven.

For those ready to meet their Savior — this is not a goodbye, but a heartfelt "See you later!"

APPRECIATION

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
