Samuel Paul Cornett

February 20, 1922 - November 16, 2006

Reminiscing on the times we shared,
They seem to have all flown by.
Like the talks we had, and the stories you told,
The times we laughed, the times we cried.

I remember the jokes you told me,
And how every once in awhile,
Your eyes would sparkle brightly,
Lighting up the room with your smile.

Sometimes now I wish,
I could turn back the hands of time,
I would have spent much more time with you,
Would've been able to say goodbye.

It seems so unfair to me
That God would choose your time with us to end,
When you were such a wonderful person,
A grandpa, a daddy, a friend.

But we do not know God's plans,
Why he does the things he does,
Why you are now in Heaven,
And not down here with us.

Without your presence in our lives,
Things will never be the same,
You won't be here by my side,
Won't answer when I call your name.

You are now with our Heavenly Father,
Which is the best place to ever be,
Your pain is gone, your problems healed,
Reunited with your family.

And even though your no longer with us,
In spirit you are still here.
Smiling, and watching over us,

As our guardian angel, seeing every laugh, every smile, every tear.
