THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

A Living Memorial

THE SINGING TOWER, Lake Wales, Florida, was conceived and built by Edward Bok, whose body now lies entombed beneath this dream of marble. A carillon of sixty-one bells sends forth every evening at sunset, in marvelous tones of sweet melody, hymns of hope and good cheer. It is often called the Taj Mahal of America.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we
forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen*

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we
forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but
deliver us from evil: for thine is the
kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen*

Sometime We'll Understand

Not now, but in the coming years,
It may be in the better land;
We'll read the meaning of our tears;
And there sometime we'll understand.

We'll catch the broken thread again,
And finish what we have began.
Heaven will the mysteries explain;
And then - ah! then - We'll understand.

We'll know why clouds instead of sun
Were over many a cherished plan;
Why song has ceased when scarce begun,
'Tis there sometime will understand.

God knows the way; He holds the key;
He guides us with unerring hand.
Sometime with tearless eyes we'll see.
Yes there - up there! We'll understand.

Then trust in God thru all the days;
Fear not! For He doth hold thy hand.
Tho dark thy way, still sing and pray;
Sometime - sometime - We'll understand.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we
forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but
deliver us from evil: for thine is the
kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen*

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

LITTLE ANGELS

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child,
Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold,
So He picks a rosebud before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them, so He takes but few,
To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult - still somehow we must try,
The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Good-Bye".
So when a little child departs, we who are left behind,
Must realize God loves children - angels are hard to find.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR SON, FATHER, BROTHER & GRANDSON

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you
and whispered "Come with Me"

With tearful eyes
we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away
although we loved you dearly
we could not make you stay

A golden heart stopped beating
hard working hands at rest

God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness for
his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup
runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and
I will dwell in the house of the Lord

THE VIRTUOUS WOMAN

At a very young age she cared for her mother,
Cooked and washed dishes for her father and brother.
She never played much, like most other kids,
'Cause what needed doing, you can bet Florence did.
She loved all she did, so it was not a chore,
From sewing, cooking, gardening and working in the store.
As years went by, she married a great man.
For thirty-five years they worked hand in hand.
Together they were great, and others could see,
Where you saw one, the other would be.
Twenty years ago the Father took Ray home,.
So he could rest a little 'til Florence came home.
I remember her saying, after working in the garden,
Come on, Peter Rabbit, it's time to rest, darlin'.
"Just a little while longer", I can just hear her say,
So I know he'll be resting 'til her homecoming day.
Florence never had children, but she's been to many a friend.
And if she'd been a mother, she would be the best there's ever been.
I'm sure her days were lengthened for the deeds she has done,
For her father, mother, friends, and other loved ones.
I'm sure God won't call her to her home on high
Until He's through with her mansion he built in the sky.
He'll have ready her trophies, and her crown just as well,
And the roses in Heaven she'll take time to smell.
No harder working woman have I ever seen.
She was a virtuous women who filled many dreams.
When she gets to heaven, there won't be work to do,
But if there is any work at all, she'll want to do her share, too.

Love, your friend,
Cynthia Sugg

Perhaps Today

Perhaps at cool of morning when
The day is breaking light;
Perhaps at noontide's hour, or
Midst gathering shades of night

I'll see a burst of glory, and
The angel's voice I'll hear;
The trumpet's golden throat will sound
The summons loud and clear!

Then suddenly - I'll see the Lord
I'll meet Him face to face -
The Lord of all the universe
The Lord of truth and grace!

My cup of bliss will overflow;
I'll see Him as He is!
What joy to place my hand within
That nail-scarred hand of His!

Perhaps today will be the day
I'll hear His welcomed voice!
Perhaps today I'll see the Lord
And evermore rejoice!

Perhaps Today

Perhaps at cool of morning when
The day is breaking light;
Perhaps at noontide's hour, or
'Midst gathering shades of night

I'll see a burst of glory, and
The angel's voice I'll hear;
The trumpet's golden throat will sound
The summons loud and clear!

Then suddenly - I'll see the Lord!
I'll meet Him face to face...
The Lord of all the universe
The Lord of truth and grace!

My cup of bliss will overflow;
I'll see Him as He is!
What joy to place my hand within
That nail-scarred hand of His!

Perhaps today will be the day
I'll hear His welcomed voice!
Perhaps today I'll see the Lord
And evermore rejoice!

To Those We Love and Those Who Loved Us

*Since we've gone, release us, let us go.
We have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to us with tears,
Be thankful for our beautiful years.*

*We gave to you our love. You can only guess
How much you gave to us in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time to travel on alone.*

*So grieve a while for us, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.*

*We won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need us, call and we will come.
Though you can't see or touch us, we'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All our love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way along,
We'll greet you with a smile, and say,*

"Welcome Home!"

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

The Rose Beyond The Wall

A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by
it spread its branches, straight and tall...

One day, a beam of light shone through
a crevice that had opened wide —
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side...

Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted — the rose blooms there —
Its beauty even greater now,
nurtured by God's own loving care.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I to will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Bernice R. Baugh

November 25, 1910 - May 6, 2001

TWENTY THIRD PSALM
The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness for
his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will
fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy
rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou
anointest my head with oil; my cup
runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need
A gentle loving touch,
When He created mother love
That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children
Would need a guiding hand,
Someone who'd always be there
To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need
A special kind of cheer
When He endowed a mother's face
With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send
From His heavenly realm above,
There is none that is more precious
Than that of mother love.

Betty Mae Howell

79, a resident of Dallas, Texas passed away January 3, 2007, at her home in Dallas, Texas. She was born July 14, 1927 at Morrow, Arkansas, the daughter of Rufus H. and Ruby May Morris Seay.

Betty had her profession of faith as a teenager. She was a member of the Baptist Church. Her parents were farmers in Bush Valley for many years. She graduated from Morrow High School in 1945 where she played basketball and finished number one in her class. Her first job was with Oklahoma Gas and Electric as a bookkeeper in Fort Smith from 1947-1952. Dr. Fred Roebuck joined Betty and Jack N. Howell in marriage on May 25, 1952 at the United Methodist Church of Fort Smith, Arkansas. Their first home was in Saint Jo, Texas where her husband engaged in ranching from 1952 until 1954. She learned to ride Quarter Horses. They then moved to Fort Worth, Texas from 1954 until 1956 where she was employed as an administrative assistant at the B-58 bomber plant of General Dynamics. They then moved to Dallas, Texas from 1956 until her retirement in 1985 where she was employed as a payroll accountant for an independent oil company, and as administrative assistant for Guaranty Federal Bank. Her husband was an auditor most of the time for Bell Helicopter and later as a management advisor to bonding companies in the construction industry.

Betty's life interests were sports participants, extensive travel, self improvement courses. She was a person who was very devoted to her husband, family, and to the many people that her life touched upon. She gave away many things to people less fortunate than herself. Her generosity was well known. She made friends easily and kept them. She will be missed by one and all. We believe God knows her quite well.

She was preceded in death by one brother, James Preston Seay and one sister, Emma Thada Seay.

Survivors include her husband of 54 years, Jack Howell of the home; one sister Linda Worley and husband Danny of Fayetteville, Arkansas; one nephew, Shawn Sellers of Chicago, Illinois; many friends and relatives.

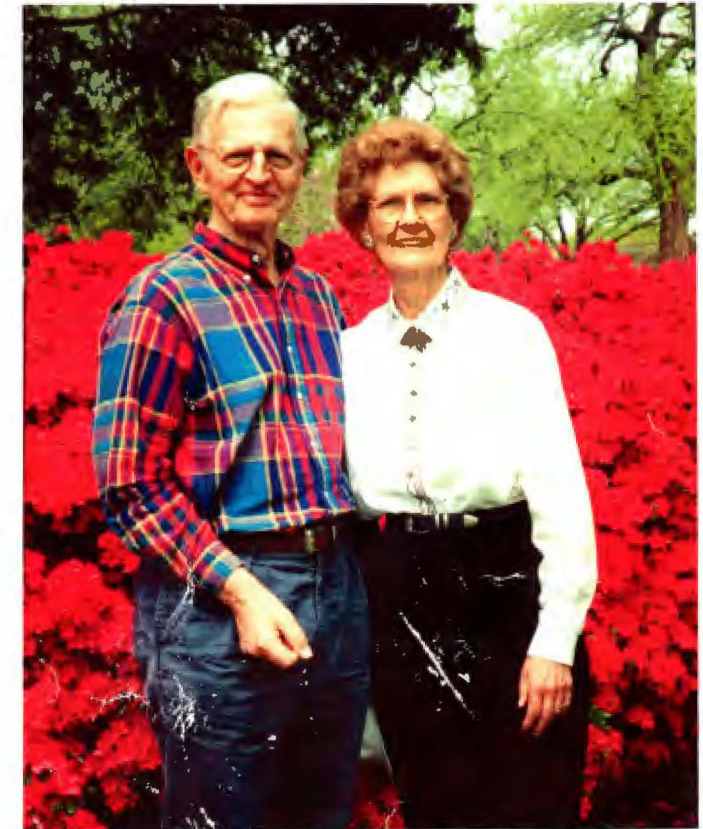

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Howell family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Perhaps Today

Perhaps at cool of morning when
The day is breaking light;
Perhaps at noontide's hour, or
'Midst gathering shades of night

I'll see a burst of glory, and
The angel's voice I'll hear;
The trumpet's golden throat will sound
The summons loud and clear!

Then suddenly - I'll see the Lord!
I'll meet Him face to face...
The Lord of all the universe
The Lord of truth and grace!

My cup of bliss will overflow;
I'll see Him as He is!
What joy to place my hand within
That nail-scarred hand of His!

Perhaps today will be the day
I'll hear His welcomed voice!
Perhaps today I'll see the Lord
And evermore rejoice!

A gentle wind blew across the land
Reaching out to take a hand
For on the winds the angels came Calling out a mother's name.

Left behind, the children's tears
Loving memories of the years
Of joy and love, a life well spent
And now to God a mother's sent.

On angel's wings, a heavenly flight
The journey home, towards the light
To those who weep, a life is gone
But in God's love, 'tis but the dawn.

May Memories Comfort You

One who has lived
Never truly dies,
But crosses a bridge
into the next life
where all is beautiful
and peaceful,
and the breeze
always whispers of lasting love.

May it ease
your sadness a bit to know that your precious memories will always be a bridge between this world and the next,
between your loved ones
and you.

Cyrus Harding "Cy" - "C.H." Green

age 92 a resident of Lincoln, went to be with his Lord on December 31, 2013 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville. He was born July 3, 1921 in Fly Creek, Arkansas, the son of Algie and Bertha Mae Cox Green.

Cy worked in the oil fields in the panhandle of Texas, Firestone Rubber in Gladewater, Texas and for the CC's driving heavy equipment trucks helping to build roads and parks.

He met Janette Snodgrass in Lincoln while working in the hayfield on her dad's property. Cyrus went to California to build Boeing Airplane parts. He called for Janette to come to California with his sister Myrtle and husband Bob. They were married June 18, 1943 by a Justice of the Peace in Yuma, Arizona because they didn't want to wait three days in California. Some years later they purchased a 300-acre farm on Fly Creek.

He was twenty six years old when he was saved in Kilgore, Texas. Shortly after he began ministry traveling with guitar and preached revivals all over the Southern US. He was an ordained minister with the United Pentecostal Church. He was a minister for 66 years and never wavered.

In his later years after his wife passing he learned to become a good cook. He loved to tell and hear a good joke, loved his family night and playing chicken foot weekly. His most enjoyable thing to do was to talk about God and the scriptures, and he lead many to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Annie Janette and his half sister Zelma Barkley.

Survivors include four sons Bobby Darrell Green of Prairie Grove, Kenneth Dale Green of Houston, Texas, Dennis Ray Green and wife Theda of Anna, Texas, and Randy Eugene Green of Zephyrhills, Florida; two daughters Betty Lou Green and Linda Sue Hassell both of Lincoln; one brother, Willard Green of Harrison, Arkansas; four sisters, Myrtle Ray, Wilma Myers and Zelta Mae Harrison all of Springdale and Mary Frances Brock of California; nine grandchildren, Charles Baldwin, Sandra Willis, Shane Green, Darin Green, Britain Green, Jason Green, Andrea Green, Vonetta Naquin, and Tina Hockenberry; nineteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

I Don't Regret A Mile

I've Dreamed Many A Dream That's Never Come True,
I've Seen Them Vanish At Dawn
But Enough Of My Dreams Have Come True
To Make Me Keep Dreaming On.

I've Prayed Many A Prayer That Seemed No Answer Would Come,
Though I'd Waited So Patient And Long
But Enough Answers Have Come To My Prayers
To Make Me Keep Praying On.

I've Sown Many A Seed That's Fallen By The Wayside,
For The Birds To Feed Upon
But I've Held Enough Sheaves In My Hands
To Make Me Keep Sowing On.

I've Trusted Many A Friend That's Failed Me
And Left Me To Weep Alone
But Enough Of My Friends Have Been True-Blue
To Make Me Keep Trusting On.

I've Drained The Cup Of Disappointment And Pain,
And Gone Many A Day Without A Song
But I've Sipped Enough Nectar From The Roses Of Life,
To Make Me Want To Live On.

I Don't Regret A Mile, I've Traveled For The Lord
I Don't Regret The Times I've Trusted In His Word
I've Seen The Years Go By, Many Days Without A Song
But I Don't Regret A Mile, I've Traveled For The Lord.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

The Rose Beyond The Wall

A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall....

One day, a beam of light shone through
a crevice that had opened wide --
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side....

Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted — the rose blooms there --
Its beauty even greater now,
nurtured by God's own loving care.

MOTHER'S NEVER REALLY DIE

THEY JUST KEEP HOUSE UP IN THE SKY
DEATH BECKONED HER WITH-OUTSTRETCHED HAND
AND WHISPERED SOFTLY OF "AN UNKNOWN LAND"
BUT SHE WAS NOT AFRAID TO GO.
FOR THOUGH THE PATH SHE DID NOT KNOW.
SHE TOOK DEATH'S HAND WITHOUT A FEAR.
FOR HE WHO SAFELY BROUGHT HER HERE
HAD TOLD HER HE WOULD LEAD THE WAY INTO ETERNITY'S BRIGHT DAY...

AND SO SHE DID NOT GO ALONE
INTO THE "VALLEY THAT'S UNKNOWN"
SHE GENTLY TOOK DEATH BY THE HAND
AND JOURNEYED TO "THE PROMISED LAND"
AND THERE WITH STEPS SO LIGHT AND GAY.
SHE POLISHED THE SUN BY DAY.
AND LIGHTS THE STARS, THAT SHINE AT NIGHT
AND KEEPS THE MOONBEAMS SILVERY BRIGHT.

FOR MOTHER'S NEVER REALLY DIE,
THEY JUST "KEEP HOUSE UP IN THE SKY"
AND IN THE HEAVENLY HOME ABOVE
THEY WAIT TO "WELCOME THOSE THEY LOVE"...

James Clark Irwin

76, a resident of Springdale, Arkansas, went to be with his Lord Sunday, April 11, 2004 at Northwest Medical Center in Springdale, Arkansas. He was born June 22, 1927 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, the son of Clyde and Pauline Clark Irwin of Clyde, Arkansas.

James grew up on the family farm in Clyde, Arkansas, and at the age of 14, his father died and James became the primary caretaker of his mother and the family farm. He attended school at Cane Hill, where he graduated in 1944. He spent one year at the University of Arkansas before leaving to serve two years in the United States Army. He returned to the University of Arkansas in February 1947 and received a Bachelors degree in Agriculture Education and later received a Master's Degree in 1951.

He married Wanda Karnes on December 26, 1949 and moved to Prairie Grove and opened the first Vocational Agriculture Program. He later taught school at Morrow and Lincoln before moving to Springdale in July 1960 to work for Tyson Foods. He retired there in 1982 due to health problems.

As well as teaching and working in the poultry industry, James served nineteen years on the Springdale City Council, served on many County, City and Church Committees including: Farmers Housing Board in the 1960's, Springdale City Airport - building terminal there, Washington County Rural Water Program - getting city water to rural people, Northwest Regional Airport Authority from 1998-2004, Chamber of Commerce in both Lincoln and Springdale, Kiwanis Club in Lincoln and Springdale, Restoration Committee for the Cane Hill College, and The Washington County Education Committee.

In 1948, James joined the Prairie Grove Presbyterian Church, Cane Hill Presbyterian Church in 1952, Springdale Presbyterian Church in 1960 and the First United Methodist Church in Springdale, Arkansas, in 1980.

James loved his children and grandchildren, and he especially loved teasing them.

His greatest interest was his farm family. He loved to tell his grandchildren that they would be the sixth generation to own the family farm that was homesteaded in 1847 by Pless and Mary Carter. The poem that best describes his love for land is "I Am Land."

James also enjoyed Finance and Investments. He became director at Bank of Fayetteville from 1986-2001 and was noted for financial advise to committees he served. He enjoyed all levels of politics and sincerely believed in anything that could improve city, state or national government and believed in letting it be known - particularly through his coffee shop buddies.

James is survived by his wife of 54 years, Wanda Karnes Irwin of the home; two sons and daughters in law, Jim and Judy Irwin of Little Rock, Arkansas; Clark and Georgi Irwin of Springdale, Arkansas; one daughter, Paula Irwin of Springdale, Arkansas; six grandchildren, J. Clark Irwin, Jill Penick and her husband Ted, Carrie and Lauren Irwin, and Hannah and Hailey Herdlinger.

I Am Land

*I am land,
I am trustworthy. When the friends and fortunes of men have wronged you, I will remain loyal.
I am the produce of good; the foundation of factories and banks.
I provide a birthplace for your off spring. A home for your family, and a shroud for your dead.
I have absorbed the sweat and secrets of your forefathers
as they toiled over me.
I have witnessed the discovery of fire, the birth of Christ,
and man's flight to the moon.
I give you comfort when the world has wronged you, strength when your path becomes rough, and the solitude needed for self-evaluation.
I am a living, breathing entity, reproducing year after year,
growing in strength generation after generation.
I am all on earth you can believe in. While all things wither and decay – I survive.
I am land.*

GREETING

Reverend Britt Skarda

Senior Pastor - First United Methodist Church - Springdale, Arkansas

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose. This is a time to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of James Irwin. While we come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss, we give thanks for James' and for his life in Christ which will never end. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When Tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes. All filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me. As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love,
But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye.
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It almost seemed impossible, That I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, And all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile.
But when I fully realized, That this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, But here it start anew.
I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last,
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past,
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Through there were times you did some things, You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven And now at last you're free,
So won't you take my hand And share my life with me?"
So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, inside your heart.

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in

green pastures:

He leadeth me beside

the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths

of righteousness for

His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me:

Thy rod and Thy staff

they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table

before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

I'd say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile.
But when I fully realized, That this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, But here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last,
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past,
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Though there were times you did some things, You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven And now at last you're free,
So won't you take my hand And share my life with me?"
So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, inside your heart.

DRINKING FROM MY SAUCER

I've never made a fortune and it's probably too late now.
But I don't worry about that much, I'm happy anyhow.

And as I go along life's way, I'm reaping better than I sowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

Haven't got a lot of riches, and sometimes the going's tough.
But I've got loving ones around me, and that makes me rich enough.

I thank God for his blessings, and the mercies He's bestowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

O, Remember times when things went wrong, my faith wore somewhat thin.
But all at once the dark clouds broke, and sun peeped through again.

So Lord, help me not to gripe about the tough rows that I've hoed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

If God gives me strength and courage, when the way grows steep and rough.
I'll not ask for other blessings, I'm already blessed enough.

And may I never be too busy, to help others bear their loads.
Then I'll keep drinking from my saucer, 'Cause my cup has overflowed.

WALK DOWN MEMORY LANE

As I walk down this memory trail,
I think of all I've heard, think of all the tales.
'bout a man who was tall and lean
in stature.
Who knew a lot about life, and a little of culture.
Who was very smart for the learning he had.
Who had tried to do what's right,
no matter how bad.

A man who went overseas to fight,
Who held his family in his heart,
Through the long and scary nights.

A man who came back to the U. S. one day
To love and marry a pretty young girl, they say.
Whose heart was overjoyed and swelled with pride,
To know that God chose him, to give two others a life.

Yes, he filled our days with work, and a whole lot of fun.
We worked and played until we were done.
He passed on stories new and old,
A better storyteller you'll never know.

We fished, and baled, and picked up the hay,
We all drove tractors along the way.
We rode the stock, and fed the chickens, too.
Wherever he was, we were there-stuck like glue.

He's stood by each of us when grief arrived,
Held us, guided us, and encouraged each of us to strive.
He's a man's man, not boastful, but proud.
He towered above us, stood out in a crowd.

His wrath was something we never wanted to see,
His thump was something we could never flee.
We all want him to know how much we care,
To say we love him, if we dare.

How proud we are to have him in our lives,
To know that it was his choice,
To allow God to be his Light.
We want him to know that we may never be smart or have great wealth....

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be
so he put his arms around you
and whispered "Come with Me"

With tearful eyes

and saw you fade away
although we loved you dearly
we could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.

The Rose Beyond The Wall

A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall....

One day, a beam of light shone through
a crevice that had opened wide --
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side....

Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted — the rose blooms there --
Its beauty even greater now,
nurtured by God's own loving care.

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Closing Hymn

THIS I KNOW

I do not know what next may come
Across my pilgrim way,
I do not know tomorrow's road,
Nor see beyond today,
But this I know – my Saviour knows
The path I cannot see,
And I can trust His wounded hand
To guide and care for me.

I do not know what may befall
Of sunshine or of rain,
I do not know what may be mine
Of pleasure and of pain;
But this I know – my Saviour knows,
And whatso'er it be,
Still I can trust His love to give
What will be best for me.

I do not know what may await,
Or what the morrow brings,
But with the glad salute of faith
I hail its opening wings!
For this I know – that in my Lord
Shall all my needs be met,
And I can trust the heart of Him
Who has not failed me yet.

Jesus said, "I am the one who raises the dead and gives them life again.

Anyone who believes in me, even though he died like anyone else, shall live again. He is given eternal life for believing in me and shall never perish.

(John 11:25, 26)

L. D. Pennell was born in Chickasha, Oklahoma on October 11, 1910. He was adopted when he was three years old by Will and Junie Pennell of Skylight Mountain near Morrow, Arkansas.

L. D. became a Christian in his youth. He has been a member of the Methodist Church since his conversion. He was a member of the All Faith United Methodist Church in Eagle Rock, Missouri at the time of his death.

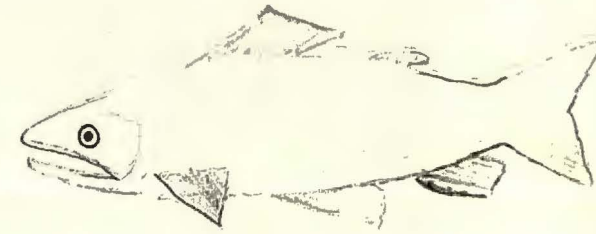

L. D. was married to Bessie Irene Cuzick on May 23, 1938 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. They lived in Tulsa and San Diego before moving to Phoenix, Arizona in 1942. They lived in the Phoenix area for nineteen years. During their stay in Arizona, several of the Cuzick children spent a year at a time with them.

L. D. worked as an aircraft sheetmetal worker for the nineteen years they were in Arizona. He suffered a major heart attack in 1961. They then moved to Arkansas to retire and to be close to their aging parents. The last thirteen years of L. D.'s life was spent in the Chain-O-Lakes Village on the edge of Table Rock Lake in Eagle Rock, Missouri.

He and Bessie celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on May 23, 1988 with a "campout" in Branson, Missouri.

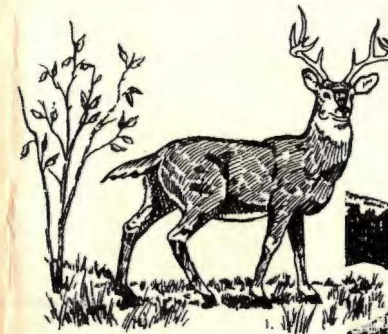

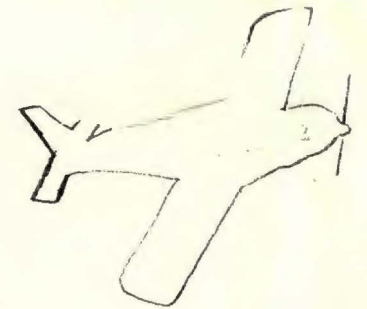

L. D. was a very avid fisherman--loved to get his quota of trout from Roaring River State Park early in the day. He also enjoyed a good game of "hearts" and lately the game had been "84" played with dominoes.

L. D. leaves behind his wife, Bessie; a brother, James Neese and two nephews; a host of friends and relatives. His Cuzick family "in-laws" grieve the loss of a wonderful brother-in-law and their "social chairman".

In Loving Memory

L. D. PENNELL

Anybody for a game of 84?
 No talking across the table, you say!
 Ah, not me, not me.
 However---there is one thing.
 I may have played my life a little like "Sam Sausage" at times.
 But, partners, I knew where I was heading all the time.
 You see I got all my trumps in when I accepted, by faith,
 Jesus Christ as my supreme sacrifice.
 Looking back from Paradise
 I say, partners do not
 "study long and play it wrong".
 Jesus, only Jesus, is all you need for admittance here.

Take care of my Bessie.

Friends

*I've come to know, as I grow old,
That friends are worth their weight
in gold;
And that a handclasp and a smile
Are things that make this life worthwhile.*

*Likewise I find, as life speeds by,
That treasures in my friendships lie;
And all the money, in the end,
Can scarce compare to one kind friend.*
