

Jeffery Colin Davis was called home at the age of 60 on April 5th, 2024, at a Veterans hospital in Memphis Tennessee.

Jeff was born May 22, 1963, in West Covina California to Mary Wilkins and Leo Davis. He was the youngest of four brothers Steve, Terry, and Phil. He went to school starting in California and ending in Prairie Grove Arkansas making many friends along the way. In his earlier years he was a martial artist and represented the state of Arkansas where he won many metals.

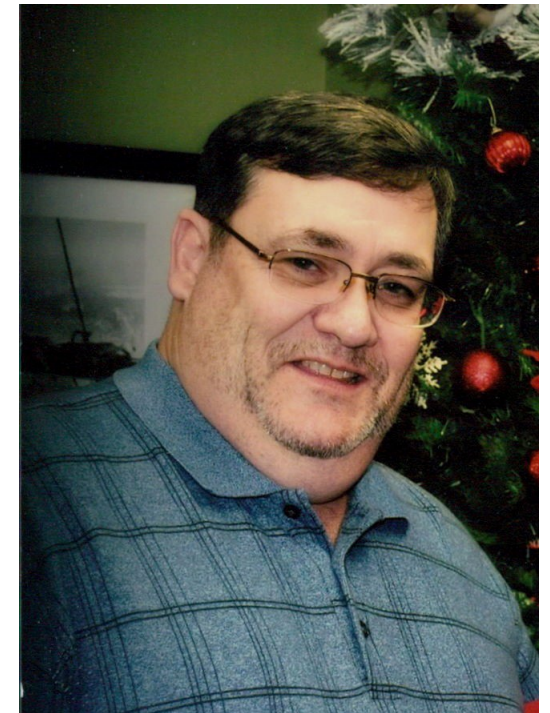

Jeff joined the Army in 1981 where he was able to see the world and would later meet the love of his life. He was stationed in South Korea where he met his wife Pu Chon in Incheon. The two married in 1985 and later moved to West Fork, Arkansas that same year.

Jeff was a devote Christian and loved to study the Hebrew language. He loved to read his bible and praying with anyone. He loved spending time with family and just having a good time. He was a loving and caring person as well as a loving husband, a father, and a friend to anyone in need. He was full of laughter and jokes that could make anyone smile. He always thought of others before himself with a loving heart.

Jeff leaves to cherish his loving memory his wife Pu Chon, son Steven, daughter Kimberly with fiancé Jeremy, two grandchildren Bryson and Peyton, his Mother Mary Wilkins, his two brothers Terry Davis with wife Tamyra and Phil Davis with wife Cheri, his nieces, and nephews along with great nieces and nephews. He also had many in his life he considered brothers.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven -
A Time for sowing,
a time for reaping,
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
a time for giving,
A time for remembering,
a time for parting,
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything you do remains forever.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
