I'm Just a Farmer, Plain and Simple

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
Not of royal birth, but rather a worker of the earth,
I know not of riches, but rather of patches
on my britches

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of drought and rain, of pleasure and pain.
I know the good, the bad, the happy and the sad.
I'm a man of emotions.

A man who loves this land and the beauty of its sand.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know the spring's fresh flow and autumn's golden glow.

Of a new born calf's hesitation and an eagle's destination.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of tall pines and long waiting lines.
I know the warmth of campfires and the agony of flat tires.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I'm a man who loves his job
And the life that I live.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple

And I'm a reaper of harvest.

I'm the sower of seeds and I'm the tender of stock.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of planting corn and bailing hay and animals going astray

I live in a complex world,
but my faith guides me.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I am a man who works with God.

I cannot succeed without his help.

For you see, I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,

And a time for everything

under heaven -

A Time for sowing,

a time for reaping,

A time for sharing,

a time for caring,

A time for loving,

a time for giving,

A time for remembering,

a time for parting,

You have made everything

beautiful in its time

For everything you do remains forever.
