

David Lee Dial

Age 40, a resident of Farmington, Arkansas, passed away Monday, November 11, 2024 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born October 27, 1984 in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

David, known for his deep love for family, friends, music, and animals, also had an intriguing interest in conspiracy theories, which often sparked lively discussions among his friends and family. He was also known for his quick wit and his motto "Any moment of weakness is immediately seized upon".

David's hobbies included a profound appreciation for music and literature. He particularly enjoyed the writings of John Grisham, which he had read all of his books.

A man who cherished the simple joys of life and the mysteries of the world, David's presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His conversations, often peppered with references to his favorite music tracks and latest reads, brought laughter and light to those around him.

He was preceded in death by grandparents Elton and Ruth Dial, and Carell E. Jordan.

Survivors include his mother Vickie Jordan of Rogers, Arkansas; his father Jon Dial and fiancée' Becky Nilles of Farmington, Arkansas; two sisters Heather Hendricks and husband Blake of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, and Alyssa Brockman and husband Michael of Fayetteville, Arkansas; grandmother Sandra Jordan of Fayetteville, Arkansas; eight nieces and nephews Kaydence Goodhart, Cole Hendricks, Ava Hendricks, Lyndon Hendricks, Abel Brockman, Grayson Brockman, Mia Brockman, and Maya Brockman.

Postlude

A great man is not great because of the size of his wallet. He is great because of the size of his heart.

A great man is not great because of his successes. He is great because of the successes of those he has touched and taught.

A great man is not judged by the love he receives for doing great things. He is loved by others because of all the great things he did.

A great man is not considered great because of the life he lived but he becomes great because he lives life with such passion.

Today we say goodbye to a great, great man.

“I’m Free”

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,

And a time for everything

under heaven -

A Time for sowing,

a time for reaping,

A time for sharing,

a time for caring,

A time for loving,

a time for giving,

A time for remembering,

a time for parting,

You have made everything

beautiful in its time

For everything you do

remains forever.
