

Charlene “Charlie” Dick, 76, a longtime resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, November 22, 2025, at Circle of Life Hospice in Springdale, Arkansas. She was born March 19, 1949, in Sterling, Kansas, the daughter of Carl and Violet (Miller) Lohmann.

Charlie was well-known in the community for her talent, work ethic, and welcoming spirit. For many years she owned and operated Charlie’s Family Salon in Prairie Grove, where she built lasting friendships and touched countless lives. In 1989, she and her husband Fred embarked on a new adventure when they moved to Grand Lake, Colorado, where together they opened Grumpy’s Grill. A decade later, in 1999, they returned home to Prairie Grove and once again poured their hearts into a new venture—Charlie’s Old Locker Grill, creating another place where friends and families gathered.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Fred Dick, and her parents, Carl and Violet Lohmann.

Charlie is survived by her two sons, William Dick and his wife Rita, and Gary Dick and his wife Tracy, all of Prairie Grove; her three grandchildren, Chandler Dick, Braxton Dick, and Finley Dick; and one great-grandson on the way, Hudson Dick. She is also survived by her brother Dennis Lohmann and his wife Vicki of Valley Center, Kansas, her sister-in-law Ruth Lange of Rotonda, Florida and numerous nieces and nephews.

MOTHER'S LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,

And a time for everything

under heaven -

A Time for sowing,

a time for reaping,

A time for sharing,

a time for caring,

A time for loving,

a time for giving,

A time for remembering,

a time for parting,

You have made everything

beautiful in its time

For everything you do remains forever.
