

Barbara Jean Bartholomew Dixon

70 a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, went to be with her Lord on April 3, 2011 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born September 2, 1940 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, the daughter of Willard Garl and Cleta Mae Pierce Bartholomew.

Barbara played the piano at New Life Covenant Church where she was a member. She played the piano and sang with her family all her life. She played and sang with her husband, Zed and her brothers, Dee and Rick and sister, Gale. They recorded gospel music and sang at many places for the Lord. Barbara and her husband, Zed, owned and operated a local restaurant, "The Bee Hive" for 13 years where they made many friends. She worked at McDonalds on 6th street in Fayetteville for 13 years. Her favorite time of year was Christmas. After God the most important thing to her was her family. She loved them all very much.

Survivors include her husband, Zed Dixon of the home; three sons, Glen Goodhart of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, Richard Dixon of Ramsen, Germany and Roger Dixon of California; three daughters, Cleta Goodhart of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Cindy Brock of Prairie Grove, Arkansas and Laura Inge of Portland, Oregon; two brothers, Rick Bartholomew and Dee Bartholomew both of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one sister, Gale Geihl of Lincoln, Arkansas; twenty one grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren and her very special aunt, Wanda Hinds of Springdale, Arkansas.

September 2, 1940 - April 3, 2011

I know you are weary
From the struggles you face;
And sure you're downhearted
With what's taking place.

Life sometimes seems rough
At times we feel low;
We all will face setbacks
As through life we go.

Keep wearing a smile
Even when times are bad;
Remove that old frown
Even when you are sad.

For a smile will work wonders
When life seems so blue;
And besides all of that
It looks better on you.
