

Willie Eneks

63 a resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away January 27, 2010 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born December 25, 1946 in Knoxville, Iowa, the daughter of Merle and Hazel Stanton Williams.

Willie was a dedicated wife and mother of three, her greatest joy was in meeting people and creating things. She was forever engaging in crafty activities including crochet, macrame, woodworking, hand-pierced lampshades, peach pit ducks, rice writing, blanket making, making gold leaf trees, and cooking. She also enjoyed making fudge and running her Krazy Kritter sand booth just so she could meet people and do some horse trading with other crafters. Her best times though were those spent with her grandchildren who she idolized. A consummate supporter of her children, she was fond of telling people that she had 24 years of PTA since the first two times she sent a child to kindergarten she decided to add to the family. She will be remembered in the hearts of her mother, brother, sisters and children, but most of all in her husband, Roy's heart which she captured 41 years ago. She was a member of the Crafter's Guild of America and was part of the Founding Committee of the Lincoln Apple Festival.

Survivors include her husband of 41 years, Roy Douglas Eneks of the home; one son, Cory Lance Eneks of Columbia, Tennessee, two daughters, Danielle Whaley of Cement, Oklahoma and Kimberly Eneks-Plunk of Germantown, Tennessee; one brother, Steve Williams of Houston, Texas; two sisters, Junella Stone of Mesa, Arizona and Cindy Williams of Russellville, Arkansas; her mother, Hazel Williams of Lincoln, Arkansas; six grandchildren, Dakota, Paige, Jake, Skyler William, Hazel-Grace, Riley Faith.

MISS ME

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
And miss me, but let me go!

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It is a part of the Master's plan,
Just a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Just go to the friends we know;
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
And miss me, but let me go.
