

Roy Lee English

Age 93, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away Monday, April 7, 2025 in Rogers, Arkansas. He was born September 13, 1931 in Ozark, Arkansas, the son of George Roy and Jetta Maye (Whitson) English.

Roy was a proud graduate of Ozark High School in 1950.

A proud veteran, Roy served in the United States Air Force. His service reflected his deep sense of duty and commitment to his country.

Roy found great joy in the natural world, especially in the mountains of Colorado where he spent time camping and fishing for trout. He also enjoyed bird hunting and cherished the peacefulness of the outdoors.

One of Roy's proudest accomplishments was building his home on the farm—a place he envisioned as a haven for his children to grow up. The farm was more than land; it was a reflection of his values and love for family, faith, and hard work.

Roy held dear his love for the Lord, his family, friends, and the land he called home. His life was rooted in these enduring connections that brought him purpose and fulfillment.

May his memory bring comfort to those who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 52 years, Nancy Carolyn Skelton English, two sisters Billy Catherine Adams and her husband Grover, Tommie Annette Grigson and her husband Brosie, and one brother Paul Phillip English.

Survivors include his son John R. English and his wife Elizabeth of Olathe, Kansas; his daughter Nancy K. Hughes and her husband Ray of Little Flock, Arkansas; three grandchildren Karen Anaya and her husband Buzzy, Sara Crismon and her husband Kelley, and Grace Cameron and her husband Matthew; and five great grandchildren.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

These Hands

I'm proud of them - these hands of mine;
So many things they've done.
They've planted flowers, and pulled the weeds,
And worked out in the sun.

They've kneaded bread and cooked
the meals
More times than I can say.
They've washed a ton of clothes, I guess,
And put them all away.

They've soothed a small child's fevered brow
And rubbed an aching head.
And when the evening shadows fell,
They put the brood to bed.

They've borne the bite of winter's cold
And felt the warmth of spring.
And on one finger long ago
Was put a wedding ring.

And when my journey here is o'er,
I still shall thankful be
That these old worn-worn hands of mine
Have done so much for me.
