

Former Lincoln Realtor Dies Suddenly Saturday

Lincoln, Jan. 10—Edwin A. Foote, 65, former real estate dealer of Lincoln, died about noon Saturday of a heart attack. He had started to town when he became ill and was taken to the Bear clinic where he died a few minutes later.

Surviving are a son, Aubrey Foote, of Denver, Colo.; and three daughters, Mrs. Edwina McNutt Okmulgee, Okla.; Miss Enk Foote, Stockton, Calif., and Miss Charlene Foote of the home; his father and two brothers.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of the Luginbuel funeral home are incomplete pending arrival of relatives.