

Rites at Cincinnati for Charles Galbraith

Lincoln, Dec. 23—Funeral services for Charles Galbraith, 84, who died Saturday at his home near Summers, were conducted at the Presbyterian church at Cincinnati Monday afternoon. Rev. J. T. Means conducted the services. Burial was in Cincinnati cemetery under direction of the Lugmuel funeral home.

Mr. Galbraith, is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Shannen Morman, Spartanburg, N. C.; Mrs. Winnie Enecks, Miss Crissie Joe Galbraith and Mrs. Madeline Spears, of Summers; Mrs. Jennie Green, Concord, Tenn.; and Mrs. Margaret Scratte of Lincoln; four sons, Floyd Lee of Washington, D. C.; James W., of Westville, Okla.; Walter and Jack of Summers; and 28 grandchildren.