"Let Me Go"

Pardon me, doctor, but may I die?
I know your oath requires you to
try to keep me alive.
So long as my body is warm and
there is a breath of life.

But listen, Doc, I've buried my spouse,
My children are grown and on their own.
My friends are all gone, and I want to go, too.

No mortal man should keep me here.
When the call from him is unmistakably clear.
I deserve the right to slip quietly away.

My work is done and I am tired.
Your motives are noble, but now I pray,
you can read in my eyes what my lips can't say.
Listen to my heart and you'll hear it cry,
pardon me, Doc but may I die.
