

Patsy Matt Harrison Hall

81, a resident of the Viney Grove Community near Prairie Grove went to be with her Lord, June 8, 2007 at the Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville. She was born November 7, 1925 in Vilonia, Arkansas, the daughter of Benjamin (Pat) Garner and Mattie Evelyn Powell Harrison.

Patsy Harrison Hall, affectionately known as "Grandmommy," Mom, Gieslaroo and just plain Pat, was and is the personification of Faith, Hope and Love. She made an atmosphere that contagiously overflowed with integrity, compassion and stubborn commitment. Anyone was welcome in her home, and all came to soak up the peace and joy left over from yesterday, bubbling over from today or anticipated for tomorrow. God gave her many children to influence and she faithfully gave Love, Hope and Inspiration to them all. She gave them all roots and wings deep and strong enough not only to overcome life's challenges but to grow from them. Freed from the earthly body she wore out so well, no longer confined by time and space, her spirit has rejoined the ever-present and all-powerful force of life we Christians know through our brother Jesus and our Holy Father, thanks be to God.

Pat lived this simple principal: trust God; and do the best that you can for as long as you can, for as many as you can.

Pat was a devoted PEO sister and past President of Chapter K "1985-1987" and received her 50-year pin in 2003.

She was a member of the City Hospital Auxiliary and supported the Arbor Foundation and many other organizations and charities. Pat was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Prairie Grove.

She was preceded in death by her grandson, Canyon Fletcher Hall, and parents Mattie Evelyn Powell Harrison (Mimi) and Benjamin (Pat) Garner Harrison (Papi).

Pat is the most beloved wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend to all who shared in her earthly life. Life was to her, relationships.

She was the director in the orchestra of her family, may her music be ever heard.

Waiting to join her are her husband of 62 years, Joe B., Hall, and siblings Benjamin Garner Harrison Jr., Mary Ruth Harrison Harrell, Dr. William F. Harrison and Martha Rachel Harrison. She is also survived by her children; Sidney Fletcher Hall III and wife Teresa, Dr. Benjamin Harrison Hall and wife Cathy, Joseph William Palmer Hall and wife Kathy, Patrick Talmage Hall and wife Kristine, Mary Virginia (Gigi) Hall Moore and husband Rager and Dr. Helen Melissa Hall Halbert and husband Steve.

Grandchildren include Geurin "Shane" Hall and wife Lory, Sidney Corren (Suedee) Hall, William "Chance" Hall, Heather Amanda Hall Bottoms and husband Nathan, Stephanie "Rachel" Hall, Cynthia "Lauren" Hall, David Harrison Hall, William Matthew Hall, Michael "Jeremy" Ashley and wife Tracie, Nanci Ashley Early and husband Brian, Naomi Ashley Core and husband Andy, Jesse Reed Morris and wife Liberty, Luke Allen Morris, Joshua Payton Hall and wife Hannah, Caroline Grace Moore, Charlotte Diane Moore, Courtney Renee Moore, Megan Louise Halbert, Jonathan Andrew Halbert, Jaylia Elizabeth Halbert, Mariah Jamison Halbert

Proverbs 31: 10-31 (Pal Joe's translation from the Hebrew)

A woman of moral courage, who also posses the spiritual strength and secular skills to support it, is very rare but not entirely wanting in the world.

11,12

One who has such a wife can trust his personal possessions, inheritance, income and windfalls to her prudence and skill, all the days of his life.

13,14

She will not only secure and protect the family assets, but contribute more good to them. She will take a portion, and through her own effort increase the family wealth. Like a wise merchant she will maximize their profit.

15-19

She is prudent with the families expenses and diligent in expanding the families wealth. In this way she grows the means to continue the economic growth of the family.

As the economic security of the family increases so does her energetic diligence and care. She never seems to rest.

No work, however menial or base, if honest, is ever resented.

20

Her industry enables the family to be charitable with its assets.

The poor and needy are never neglected.

She provides appropriate attire for her family for each season and style.

Her household is well furnished and her own cloths are of the best quality money can buy. The domestic comfort of her family promotes the families public dignity. In this way she ensures responsible social and business relationships.

Because her moral character is vigorous and honorable she looks confidently to the future with a festive glee.

26-28

Her conversation is wise and gentle, her example encourages her family and brings her praise and honor from those who know her.

29

Her husband declares in public to her "Many daughters have done well in the world and are deserving of praise, but you have excelled them all."

30

Popularity and physical beauty are fleeting, but moral integrity and reverence to God alone command permanent respect and affection.

31

The result of her labor is her best eulogy. Nothing can add to the simple beauty of this admirable portrait. As the seed of her example bears fruit in the following generations; the domestic, civil and religious welfare of the people show unending increase.
