For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven -
A Time for sowing,
a time for reaping,
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
a time for giving,
A time for remembering,
a time for parting,
You have made everything beautiful in its time
For everything you do

Dear Children and Grandchildren

My doors of my house is always open wide for my loved ones. So I hope all of you always felt welcomed and loved when you came to my house. And when you leave I hope no one feels less loved that when you entered.

We have lost dear loved ones that will always be with us on those Holidays in memory, spirit and I hope when they left my house, I made them felt welcomed and loved. Because I loved them with all my heart and soul.

And now we have come together this year, with missing people but God wanted us to be together today. Enjoy each other, cause before the next Christmas, who knows who God wants to join him in Heaven, with our Angels waiting on us. Only God knows who he wants next to sat on the golden stairs with our loved ones there. So we make the best of our life's from day to day, although some days are almost unbearable to get though.

But we have loved ones here on earth depending on our help, our input, and decisions of things in their lifes. But be sure all of you get your priorities in order, and always tell your loved ones you love them, by the end of each day.

Because God may take one of our loved ones by the hand, and say it's your time to join the others in Heaven. So now we need to enjoy each other and what we get for Christmas no matter how big or small, remember it was giving in Love with what we could afford. So be happy together with loved ones and family because tomorrow is another day, which God looks over us until he takes one of us by the hand and lifts us up to join our Angels who are in Heaven.

So Love and Be Loved, Remember I Love You all just the same.

Love Mom and Grandma Wilma
