

Jon Roland Ketzler

62, a resident of Fayetteville, Arkansas, passed away along with his longtime companion, Monica Lynn Mabie, on September 27, 2004 in Alabama. He was born November 24, 1941 near Maud, Oklahoma, the son of Jack Russell and Julia Lareau Ketzler.

Jon worked as a respiratory therapist for the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville for the last 20 years. He was a traditional tribal member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation and a Straight Dancer.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, Vincent Ketzler, Bob Wyatt and Burke Wyatt; one sister, Louise Ware.

Survivors include three sons and daughters-in-law, Vince and Patricia Ketzler, Jason and Sheila Ketzler and Shawn and Tammy Ketzler all of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one daughter and son-in-law, Heidi and Bryan Beavor of Springdale, Arkansas; one step daughter, Jennifer Mabie of Bentonville, Arkansas; twelve grandchildren, Dane, Jesse, Dillan, Brooke, Cory, Kylah, Chris, Erica, Joseph, Meggan, Jasmine and Chrissy.

Monica Lynn Mabie

51, a resident of Fayetteville, Arkansas, passed away along with her longtime companion, Jon Ketzler, on September 27, 2004 in Alabama. She was born March 17, 1953 in Wichita, Kansas, the daughter of Fred and Ada Lynn Morris Brown.

Monica has worked in the Chemistry Department of the University of Arkansas for almost 30 years. She enjoyed working with beads, flea-marketing and was an avid Ebay-er, often called the "Ebay Queen." She loved Mardi Gras, Cajun Food, Zydeco music and the beach.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Survivors include one daughter, Jennifer Mabie of Bentonville, Arkansas; three step sons and daughters-in-law, Vince and Patricia Ketzler, Jason and Sheila Ketzler and Shawn and Tammy Ketzler all of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one daughter and son-in-law, Heidi and Bryan Beavor of Springdale, Arkansas; three half brothers, Glenn Kemp Jr., Jeff Kemp and Mike Kemp all of Washington; one half sister, Michelle Roy also of Washington; twelve grandchildren, Dane, Jesse, Dillan, Brooke, Cory, Kylah, Chris, Erica, Joseph, Meggan, Jasmine and Chrissy.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Ketzler and Mabie families, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Luginbuel Funeral Home
Prairie Grove, Arkansas

We are not here, We do not sleep.
We are a thousand winds that blow,
We are the diamond glints on snow.

We are the sunlight on ripened grain,
We are the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,

We are the swift uplifting rush.
Of quiet birds in circled flight,
We are the soft star that shines at night.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE & MEMORY OF

Jon Roland Ketzler
Monica Lynn Mabie

DATE, TIME & PLACE OF SERVICE

Thursday, September 30, 2004 - 2:00 P.M.
Prairie Grove Christian Church – Prairie Grove, Arkansas

ORDER OF SERVICE

Prelude Music	Coyote Oldman - Thunder Chord
"Special Music"	Doug Kidd
Obituary	Cecil Sugg Pastor - Center Point Church of God
Words of Comfort
Closing Prayer
Video Presentation	"Jambalaya (On the Bayou)" "Nathan and the Zydeco (Cha Chas)" "Local Hero"
Postlude Music	Coyote Oldman - Thunder Chord

