Gary Dale "Jack" Kidd

February 28, 1947 - July 20, 2014

Jack Kidd was a mountains man. He could repair a gun, knife, or dwelling and could start a fire fast as any man. He could trade you out of your underwear and you would shake his hand and he new what to say to keep his scalp attached. He will be missed. He crossed over well. Whoe Jack Kidd and all men!

Perhaps Today

Perhaps at cool of morning when
The day is breaking light;
Perhaps at noontide's hour, or
'Midst gathering shades of night

I'll see a burst of glory, and
The angel's voice I'll hear;
The trumpet's golden throat will sound
The summons loud and clear!

Then suddenly - I'll see the Lord!
I'll meet Him face to face...
The Lord of all the universe
The Lord of truth and grace!

My cup of bliss will overflow;
I'll see Him as He is!
What joy to place my hand within
That nail-scarred hand of His!

Perhaps today will be the day
I'll hear His welcomed voice!
Perhaps today I'll see the Lord
And evermore rejoice!
