Celebrating
THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Margaret “Peggy”
Ann Knox

June 26, 1934 - July 7, 2021

A MOTHER'S HANDS

Hands that rocked the cradle
from the moment of my birth,
Their tender touch remembered
by those still here on Earth.
Soft as silk those hands that taught me how to pray,
Banishing childhood fears;
they soothed each one away.
When I grew much older
and troubles came my way,
Those hands caressing mine
did more than words could say.
Mother's hands were gentle,
they're missed so very much,
I'd give the world to feel once more
their warm and tender touch.
Those hands were full of comfort
now they lie at rest,
But memories hold them close to the ones they served the best.

LEGACY OF LOVE

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep

AS I SIT IN HEAVEN

And watch you everyday,
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away.
I hear you when you're laughing,
And watch you as you sleep.
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you weep.
I see you wish the days away,
Begging to have me home.
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone.
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me.
Heaven is truly beautiful,
Just you wait and see.
So live your life, laugh again,
Enjoy yourself, be free.
Then I know with Every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me.
