

Deborah Sue Lowery

68, of Prairie Grove passed away at her home surrounded by her family on September 9, 2025.

Deborah was born February 21, 1957,
in Moses Lake, Washington,

She was the daughter of Elemuel Thomas (E.T.) Pannell and Wilma Lee Keller.

Deborah will be remembered for her tender heart and her gift for caring for others. She was deeply loving and compassionate, always ready to lend a hand or a listening ear. Family and friends were the center of her life, and she cherished every moment spent with them. She had a natural sense of order, keeping everything in its place, and she found peace in the little rhythms of an organized life. More than anything, Deborah was selfless she would set aside her own struggles to make sure others were cared for. Her laughter, bright and frequent, was a source of comfort and joy, reminding those around her of the importance of staying hopeful. She leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and unwavering devotion that will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Paul Leslie Lowery; her son, Johnathan Pannell; her great-grandson, Ky'aire Azare Douglas; her first husband, Carl Craig; her parents, Elemuel Thomas and Wilma Lee Keller; her maternal grandparents, Francis and Maryanne Keller; and her paternal grandparents: Thomas and Martha Ann Pannell

Deborah is survived by her daughter, Mendy Craig of Fayetteville; her stepson, Nathan Lowery and his wife, Cindy; and her stepdaughter Kasie and her husband, Brad Sargent. She is also survived by her brother, Steven Pannell and close friend Anne Jones of Cedarville; her sister, Lynett, and her husband, David Vinson. Her cherished grandchildren include Christopher Pannell, Christina Sparks, Christian Wolf, Azharia Douglas, Sydney, Briana, and Calley Lowery, as well as Journey and Namiah Boyd. She leaves behind six great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews, extended family and friends, and her beloved fur baby, Bridgette.

Memorial Service will be Saturday, September 13th at 10:00 a.m. at Luginbuel with Bro Paul Young officiating.

BABY SUE

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little - but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared, miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know. And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me
- but let me go.
