

GRANDCHILDREN

MEMORIES:

- *Riding the blue scooter
- *Going to Louisiana and eating Cajun food, dancing and doing a swamp tour
- *Getting him a Zebco 33 fishing reel for Christmas
- *Eating fried chicken from Walmart at family get togethers
- *Learning how to fish at the campground in Branson
- *Riding the lawn mower for hours in the yard
- *Spending hours in the coffee shop
- *Arguing about wearing my seatbelt
- *Fish frying all the catfish
- *Checking trotlines on the boat
- *The chicken houses smelling "like money"
- *Starting the grill with a massive fire
- *Cooking us pancakes on high and burning them
- *Talking on the CB radio while sitting in the middle of his red & white Dodge Cummins pickup on a pillow-without a seatbelt

MEMORIES:

- *Riding in the camper shell with all the cousins
- *Canoeing on the Buffalo River-in jeans, boots & cowboy hat
- *Getting pulled on the Banana Boat FAST
- *Crab fishing on a bridge in Louisiana with a string with chicken liver on the end of it
- *Grandma making a healthy breakfast and then Grandpa coming in saying, "They don't want that, give them some of this cake or pie! That's what they want"
- *Making the best scrambled eggs
- *Camping, camping & more camping
- *His big belly laughs
- *Up high, down low, in the hole, now stomp my toe
