Henry "Hank" Arthur McClelland

age 66, died October 16th, 2010, in Fayetteville. He was born November 15th, 1943, in Clovis, California, the eldest son of Oscar and Winnie McClelland. Early in life, Hank found his niche in the construction industry. He was a drywall contractor by trade and homebuilder in his spare time. He refurbished, designed and built many custom homes throughout his lifetime for his family to live in. Deer hunting was a favorite pastime and Hank preferred the serenity his Horton Crossbow allowed him, versus rifle hunting. Gardening was also a passion. He was a master gardener, producing a surplus of vegetables he shared with family and friends. Recently, he acquired the knowledge of home canning and had just finished a batch of apple butter. Hank was a loving husband for forty-eight years. He loved his children and grandchildren and took pride in their accomplishments.

He is survived by his wife, Linda McClelland, of Prairie Grove, three daughters, Bobbi Boller and Jamie Porter of Farmington, Sandy Silva of Elkins, and four grandchildren. He is also survived by his father, Oscar Dale McClelland, 3 brothers and 6 sisters.

"We little knew that day that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go along;
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again."
