I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
Not of royal birth, but rather a worker of the earth.
I know not of riches, but rather
of patches on my britches.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
I know of drought and rain,
of pleasure and pain.

I know the good, the bad,
the happy and the sad.

I'm a woman of emotions.
A woman who loves this land and the beauty of its sand.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know the spring's fresh flow and autumn's golden glow.

Of a new born calf's hesitation and an eagle's destination.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of tall pines and long waiting lines.
I know the warmth of campfires and the agony of flat tires.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I'm a woman who loves her job.
And the life that I live.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

And I'm a reaper of harvest.
I'm the sower of seeds and I'm the tender of stock.

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of planting corn and bailing hay and animals going astray.
I live in a complex world,
but my faith guides me.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I am a woman who works with God.
I cannot succeed without his help.

For you see, I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

"I'm Just a Farmer, Plain and Simple"

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me

And remember only my best
