

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO JAMES ELSWORTH McKEE

Farmington, May 9.—Tribute was paid by Rev. E. M. Freyschlag to James Elsworth McKee at funeral services held Friday afternoon at the Bethel Grove Cumberland Presbyterian church, with Mr. Freyschlag and Rev. George Pond officiating.

Mr. Freyschlag spoke of the heritage left family and friends by an honorable name, saying Mr. McKee's life was an outstanding example to all who know him. The casket was covered with flowers. Four songs were sung by the choir: "Beulah Land," "Sweet By and By," "Death Is Only A Dream" and "He is the Lily of the Valley."

Honorary pallbearers were Guy Skelton, R. M. Morton, Gene Dorman, M. G. Lewis, E. G. Rouse, Mr. Hall, Harry Bennett and Harvey White. Burial was at Farmington cemetery.
