

Maxine Baugh McNair

89, a resident of Rogers, Arkansas, passed away February 14, 2015 in Rogers. She was born September 14, 1925 at Cane Hill, Arkansas, the daughter of Ernest and Vena Reed Baugh.

Maxine was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Prairie Grove. She enjoyed needlework, reading and cooking for her family. Maxine met Charles shortly after WWII and it was love at first sight. They were engaged one week after their first date and married one month later, a marriage that lasted for fifty years. They enjoyed many hobbies, especially antiques and horse racing.

She was preceded in death by her parents and husband Charles McNair.

Survivors include three daughters, Mary Ann Estes of Bentonville, Arkansas, Becky Wray and husband Curtis of Frisco, Colorado, and Pam McNair of Rogers, Arkansas; one son, Mike McNair and wife Miranda of Savannah, Georgia; eight grandchildren, David Estes and wife Tiffany, Mande Wray, Allison Wray, Matthew McNair, Kelsey McNair, Abigail Havlin, Harrison Havlin, and Grayson Havlin; two great grandsons, Aidan Estes and Eli Estes.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the McNair family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mothers love.
