

Deborah Sue Meyer

Age 72, a resident of Morrow, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, December 28, 2024 at her home. She was born December 15, 1952 in Newport Beach, California, the daughter of Charles William and Freda Sue (Casebolt) Moore.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother Charles William Jr.

Survivors include her husband Connie Meyer; one son Scott Meyer; one daughter Tonya Umberson and husband Jason; grandchildren Cole Umberson and wife Jessika, Paige Umberson and fiance Justin McQuiston, Carson Umberson; two great grandchildren, Jaycee McQuiston and Jimmy Umberson; three sisters Kaye Hunton and husband Robert, Karen White and husband Joe and Sheilah Davis.

Debbie loved her kids, grand kids and Great grands kids fiercely.

If she could have she might have started with her great grandchildren first in life. She was very proud of all of them. She enjoyed traveling with Connie on all the school board trips. They had a lot of laughs with many friends. She loved to shop. Her last big shopping trip was with Paige to find her wedding dress for this coming May to marry Justin. She loved flowers. She enjoyed the flowers Cole and Jessika sent to her. In fact, the joke was Cole's flowers were bigger than Bobo's. She laughed and said she expected nothing less. She was so proud of Carson. She said he gave the best hugs and he always told her he loved her. He would FaceTime with her while she was in the hospital. She certainly felt loved and she loved them all fiercely.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go along; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide;

and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;

but as God calls us

one by one, the Chain

will link again.

Dear Mom

As I reflect on life,
from birth until now,
you've been my constant guide, I see all the love you've given,
in every moment,
you were by my side.

You've always been there for me,
Your presence a steady light, your hugs and kisses a soothing balm, making everything feel alright.

The happy days
we have shared together, talking, laughing, just us two,
those memories I'll always treasure, For they are a part of me and you.

And now that I have grown and forged my way,
For all you've done,
for all you'll always be,
I still feel grateful every single day, my dearest mother,
you mean the world to me.
