

I Made it Home
 I just wanted to let you know that I made it home.
 The journey wasn't an easy one,
 but it didn't take too long.
 Everything is so pretty here,
 so white, so fresh, so new.
 I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too.
 Please try not to be sad for me.
 Try to understand.
 God is taking care of me...
 I'm in the shelter of His hands.
 Here there is no sadness,
 and no sorrow, and no pain.
 Here there is no crying,
 and I'll never hurt again.
 Here it is so peaceful when all the angels sing.
 I really have to go for now...
 I've just got to try my wings.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
 I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil:
 for Thou art with me:
 Thy rod and Thy staff
 they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
 before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

APPRECIATION

Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Patsy Ellen Moncrief

December 6, 1939
 September 10, 2025

Patsy Ellen Moncrief

Age 85, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, went home to be with Jesus on Wednesday, September 10, 2025, at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was born December 6, 1939, in Mountainburg, Arkansas, the daughter of Millard F. and Bessie (Snell) Pierce.

From an early age, Patsy worked hard to help her family, starting with berry and tomato picking before waitressing at Bird's Café in Mountainburg at just 15. She was also a standout athlete at Winslow High School, earning recognition in both basketball and softball. Throughout her life, Patsy carried that same determination, working wherever needed—at the Salvation Army, Campbell Soup, picking berries, cutting grapes, or gathering eggs — always putting her family first.

Patsy's faith was the foundation of her life. A devoted and faithful Christian woman, she made sure her family knew the Lord's teachings. She had a heart for gardening and filled her home with flowers, plants, and the bounty of her garden. She loved to cook, bake, and can vegetables—famous among family and friends for her jelly, pecan pies, cornbread dressing, and especially her homemade peanut brittle. An avid reader and lover of Bluegrass music, she also had a gift for conversation, cherishing visits with neighbors, friends, and family. Above all else, her greatest joy was her family, who truly were her world.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Millard and Bessie Pierce; her husband of 55 years, Doile G. Moncrief; her eldest daughter, Connie S. Moncrief Preston; granddaughter Makayla; son-in-law Mike Willis; brother Jimmie Ray Pierce; and great-grandson Hoyt Willis.

She is survived by her two daughters, Tammy Willis of Lincoln, Arkansas, and Rhonda Moncrief of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one granddaughter, Charity Collins and her husband Rusty of Lincoln; four grandsons, Jeff Mongold of Central Arkansas, Jake Willis and his wife Robin of Lincoln, Justin Willis and his wife Sara of Prairie Grove, and Clayton Willis and his wife Candice of Strickler; and five great-grandchildren, Carter Collins, Gracie, J.W., Hunter, and Stetson Willis.

Patsy leaves behind a legacy of faith, strength, and love that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew her.

Prayer for my Mom

*Dear God,
I gratefully thank you for giving me my Mom – you must really love me – cause you gave the best you had. Watch over her, and bless her Lord, and keep her in your care. And may she feel my love for her is my humble, heart felt prayer.*

Amen
