MISS ME

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no
tears in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared and miss me, but let me go!

For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone, it is a part of the Master's plan, just a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Just go to the friends we know;
Bury your sorrow in doing good

deeds
And miss me, but let me go.

Congratulations

Valentine Fun

Alvin Moore, 77, and Abbey Holden, 82, were crowned Sweetheart King and Queen Wednesday during The Sunrise Manor elderly care center's annual Valentine's Day sweetheart party. In their regalia, the honored two sat at the party's head table. Eleanor Wheat, activities director at the manor, said the employees cast votes to determine the new king and queen. Moore said he thinks the title is an honor. When asked what she thought about it, Holden said, "Oh, I'm proud. I'm glad they picked Alvin."
