WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartaches
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

DO NOT STAND AND WEEP

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there.

I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that swiftly blow.

I am the diamond glints on newly fallen snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the soft and gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet
birds in circling flight.

I am the soft starlight that shines at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there.

I do not sleep.
