

Ruth Estalle Norton

97, a resident of Cane Hill, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, January 29, 2026 in Cane Hill, Arkansas. She was born August 12, 1928 in Wayton, Newton County Arkansas, the daughter of John Green and Minnie Jane (Henderson) Holland.

Married to Delton Hoyt Norton on March 27th 1945. Had sixty-eight years married and was blessed with three children (Wallace, Jane and Lynn Norton).

Wallace Passed ahead of Ruth in the year 2000, Jane passed ahead of Ruth in 2024. Lynn is still living and was his mothers care giver in her final years Ruth had eight sisters and four brothers. Ruth wanted to make special mention of her sister in law Nan Holland as well (surviving wife of Carl Holland). Ruth has 1 living brother in law (Jack Norton) Ruth also has 1 living son in law (Tim Hazlewood)

Ruth not only loved to sew but was fantastic at it as well! She was an amazing seamstress and loved making quilts which she blessed most of her family with over the years. (all hand quilted too). She loves her church and playing the guitar in the church any chance she had. Ruth also loved family reunions (or any reason for a family get together at all). Ruth was a first responder over the years.

Ruth was also blessed with; fifteen grand kids, thirteen great grands kids, nine great-great grand kids.

Ruth was one of the best cooks around feeding her family more meals than one could count, Ruth often cooked Beans and corn bread, chocolate pies and cobblers and many many other things. A lot of what Ruth cooked over the years was provided from her very own garden which grew long enough to provide for several generations.

“Love never fails.”

1 Corinthians 13:8

FOR A LIFE OF FAITH AND LOVE

2 Timothy 4:7

I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.

Proverbs 31:25–26

Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the days to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

Psalm 116:15

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.
