

Doris Jean Bricker Patten, 81, a longtime resident of Farmington, Arkansas, passed away on Friday, May 16, 2025, in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Doris was born on April 26, 1944, at the Elizabeth Hospital in Prairie Grove, Arkansas, the daughter of Ralph Quinton

and Golda Marie (Howe) Bricker.

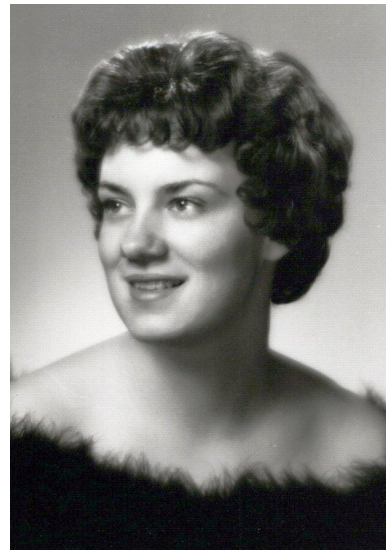

Doris was dedicated to serving her family, her church, and, most of all, the Farmington community, where she graduated high school and has lived proudly for the past 48 years. She never met a stranger, generously loved her friends and relatives and had a kind smile and word for everyone.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband of 46 years, Dennis Wayne Patten, her parents and a stepson, Perry Patten.

Doris is survived by her son Roger Dunaway and his wife Aimee; stepdaughters Paula Lank and her husband Greg, and Estelle Patten; six grandchildren: Erika Lank Hinton and her husband Reese Hinton, Jessica Horrocks and her husband Jared, Andrew Poulsen and his wife Ashley, Kelly Lank Samimi and her husband Cam, Josh Patten and Charlie Dunaway; nine great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A licensed hairdresser and cosmetologist, Doris worked at the Paragon on the Fayetteville square and later cut hair from her home. She worked for many years alongside several family members at Baldwin Piano. She was a receptionist for the Arkansas Area Health Education Centers (AHEC) (Now UAMS) and later worked at the Ozark Mountain Smokehouse.

Wayne and Doris were longtime members of the Farmington United Methodist Church. Doris proudly served on the planning committee for the current church. She was a passionate volunteer at Fayetteville City Hospital, The Attic and the Fayetteville chapter of the Disabled American Veterans. She was a taste tester for the University of Arkansas Science Center.

1 Corinthians 15:51-57
King James Version

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall
all be changed,

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye,
at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put
on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up
in victory.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave,
where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, which giveth us
the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
