An Angle Before Me...

Just now I am beginning to understand some of the challenges you have had.
With all of the struggles that life dealt you
I rarely saw you sad.

You are my encouragement,
my strength and wisdom every day.
With guidance and love in good times and bad
you always know what to say.

You must have had times when you needed a shoulder
or someone to talk to about life.
You must have had times when we didn't understand and you needed someone to hold you tight.

What do you have to show for all you have done?
Do you realize the lives you have touched?
All the caring and understanding you have given in this world

and you continue to give so much.

It must be difficult to be the only one
we depend on for everything.
Do you know how proud we are of you?
I wonder where you've hidden your wings.

For you must be an angel...that would explain it sent down for the heavens above.
To show all this world, your 4 boys and 4 girls
the true meaning of Love.

The greatest compliment I could receive in this life,
and I hope someday it will be,
Is that I am as wise and caring,
full of love and understanding as my mother was before me.

Love,
Becky
