TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in
green pastures:
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence
of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and
mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Raymond Carthel Petty

November 21, 1938

March 31, 2025

Raymond Petty lived his entire life in Washington and Benton Counties. He attended Lincoln High School remaining close with several classmates. Early in his work career he was a carpenter and sheet rock mason. He later found employment as a truck driver for a Phillips 66 Fuel jobber delivering fuel to local businesses for years. He later found his way into dispatch, sales, then office management for a Fayetteville, AR fuel supplier. In addition, Raymond raised cattle and chickens on a farm in south Washington County until 1986 when he moved to Siloam Springs.

Raymond was a proud member of Cane Hill Masonic Lodge #57 for 65 years. A 32nd degree Mason, and he held the title of Grand Master several times. The 57th lodge is now incorporated with Lincoln Lodge #615 where he remained a member till his death.

Raymond Carthel (Pap) loved his family and the joy in teasing and telling stories. Other hobbies he enjoyed were hunting, fishing, car shows and racing quarter horses. He gathered an endless number of friends along the way.

The family wants to thank all friends and well wishers for their thoughts and prayers.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven -
A Time for sowing,
a time for reaping,
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
a time for giving,
A time for remembering,
a time for parting,
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything you do
remains forever.
