I'm Just a Farmer, Plain and Simple

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
Not of royal birth, but rather a worker of the earth,
I know not of riches, but rather of patches on my britches

I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
I know of drought and rain, of pleasure and pain.
I know the good, the bad, the happy and the sad.

I'm a man of emotions.
A man who loves this land and the beauty of its sand.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know the spring's fresh flow and autumn's golden glow.
Of a new born calf's hesitation and an eagle's destination.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of tall pines and long waiting lines.
I know the warmth of campfires and the agony of flat tires.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I'm a man who loves his job
And the life that I live.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple

And I'm a reaper of harvest.
I'm the sower of seeds and I'm the tender of stock.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I know of planting corn and bailing hay and animals going astray
I live in a complex world, but my faith guides me.
I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.

I am a man who works with God. I cannot succeed without his help.
For you see, I'm just a farmer, plain and simple.
