

Raylene Porter

76, a resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away Friday, November 8, 2019 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was born April 2, 1943 in Upland, California, the daughter of Ray C. and Leta (Taylor) Childers.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband Ervin Porter.

Survivors include one sister Bonita Dees; one brother Clifford Childers and twelve nieces and nephews.

Raylene attended Lincoln School from 1st grade thru 12th grade. She worked at Abilities Unlimited where she met her husband Ervin. Together they had a great life. When winter would come they would head to Texas, where they enjoyed the warm weather and lots of friends. She enjoyed crocheting, working crossword puzzles, but most of all keeping track of all her friends and family. Her ability to do just that was incredible.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

FINAL RESTING PLACE
Black Oak Cemetery
Winslow, Arkansas

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love . . .
