There's Always A Way

There's always a way, but we have to try,
Though life is a gift to you and I,
We can't expect to merely sit,
With never an effort to merit it.

There's always a way, though the going's rough,
And only our best is good enough,
We haven't the time to count each loss,
If the bridge is out, we swim across.

There's always a way, life's not in vain,
Whichever way we chance to go,
The Master walked it first, you know.

He simply wouldn't put us here,
And then withdraw His tender care, Whatever His dear love may ask,
He makes us equal to the task.

For it is true He walks beside us Through bones may bend and sight may dim,
No thing's impossible for Him,
And so whenever walls may rise,
To block the sunlight from our eyes,

That is the time for us to say,
"Dear Lord, Please help me find the way".

(In case I decide to)

My grandpa, was one of a kind.
He was always there for us when we needed him and he had his own way of letting us know that he loved us without actually saying it out loud. Whenever I was upset or just in a bad mood, it was him that always found a way to make me laugh and smile.
And he could break up any argument that was ever started with a few gentle words.
He never had to raise his voice to get us to listen. He was always in a good mood and being with him just made you feel great. I believe he was loved by all and everyone will miss him.
He was just a guy that everyone could get along with. He was an amazing friend, a great husband, a wonderful father and he was the Best grandpa. He taught me alot of things but above all he taught me how to cherish the little things in life and to make the best out of what you have.
