

Frances Louise Repass

87, a resident of Farmington, passed away January 10, 2014 in Fayetteville. She was born December 9, 1926 at Mansfield, Arkansas, the daughter of Duke and Mattie Belle Tarpley Christian.

Friends and family knew her as Frances or Fran, but she affectionately became "Granny" to her three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Tragedies faced as a young mother shaped Fran, contributing to the strength and determination that drove her work ethic throughout her life. Her love for and commitment to her only child, Bob, guided her in the pursuit of a life that would afford them opportunity and stability during his childhood.

Fran maintained a fervent connection to her family, frequently hosting them for holiday meals that would often culminate with card games that lasted late into the evening hours. She always enjoyed a bit of friendly competition, even if simply to challenge herself to complete a daily newspaper puzzle. Fran exuded a wit and charm that put people at ease and welcomed them into her company, a quality that helped make new guests immediately feel like family members. After fighting a lengthy battle with cancer and Alzheimer's Disease, Fran has entered a place of peace and comfort through her faith in Christ.

She was preceded in death by her Mother and Father; her first husband Carter Crouch; four brothers and one sister; two step sons, F. Wayne Parsons, and Troy Dale Repass.

She is survived by her husband, Troy Repass; her son, Robert Crouch, Sr. and his wife Deborah Crouch; her grandchildren Robert Crouch, Jr. and his wife Michele Crouch; Christopher Crouch; and Amy Woole and her husband Ricky Woole; as well as five great-grandchildren; one step son, J. Phillip Repass, one step daughter, Kathryn Colasacco and husband Gene.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Dorothy Cardenas for her Care for Frances.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
