What price for the promise,
For the flash of the fish
Sliding through the dark water
As it's bent to your wish?

What price for the calm
Of the water's restored
When the fish's been caught
And you sit still once more?

What price for the rays
In the heat of the day
When old bones are warmed
And Children run and play?

What price for an evening
And the setting of sun,
When tired bones can rest
And the day's work is done?

What price for the night
When all's quiet and still,
With only the shrill call
Of a longsome Whip O' Will?

What price for the morn
When sleepers again arise,
To another day's dawning
to get another sunrise?

MISS ME

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
And miss me, but let me go!

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go along,
It is a part of the Master's plan,
Just a step on the road to home.

When you are longly and sick at heart,
Just go to the friends we know;
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
And miss me, but let me go.
