

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to everyone for their acts of kindness during the illness and passing away of my aunt, Neva Robinson. The members of Liberty Baptist Church were Neva's friends for life and gave her a reason to stay alive as long as she did. There was never a phone conversation with Neva unless she was bragging on one of her babies in the nursery, making a pecan pie for some dinner, or inviting me to join her for Sunday morning church. Surely Neva is sitting in heaven trying to telling everyone what to do! God love her! Speaking for all Neva's nieces and nephews, we say "Thank you" again. Brenda Brown

Neva Kathleen Robinson

84, a resident of Dutch Mills, Arkansas, passed away June 4, 2011 in Prairie Grove, Arkansas, after a year-long battle with colon cancer. She was born September 17, 1926 at Nail, Arkansas, the daughter of Brownlow and Georgie Daniels Brown.

Neva was a member of the Liberty Baptist Church in Dutch Mills; She was a member of a local hobby club and quilting group and provided baby quilts for her nieces and nephews and their children. Neva loved babies and worked in the nursery at her church almost every Sunday. She crocheted and gave away more than 150 dresser scarves to family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Fay Robinson in (1975).

Survivors include two sisters-in-law, Lois Brown and Wanda Brown both of Harrison, Arkansas; two nieces, Brenda Brown of Lowell, Arkansas, and Sandra Ricketts of Harrison, Arkansas; four nephews, Ron Brown of Springfield, Missouri, Glenn Brown of Ovilla, Texas, Doug Brown and Brad Brown of Harrison, Arkansas and a stepdaughter, Ronda Cordova of Gulf Shores, Alabama.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Robinson family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
