

Resolutions of Sympathy

Prairie Grove, Ark.

March 5, 1918.

Whereas, Thomas C. Rogers lost his life by a sad and tragic death on aviation field, while training for the service of his country, we the United Daughters of the Confederacy wish to extend our love and deepest sympathy to his father and mother, sisters and brothers, in the loss of this dear son and brother and our soldier boy. He was noble and honorable. No greater sacrifice can be made, than he has made, in giving his life's blood for his country. We know how hard this trouble is to bear, but there is a comforter who is always near us to bind up the broken hearted, and we know He is near to keep and bless you in your sorrow.

God save our splendid men,
Send them safe home again,
God save our men.
Make them victorious,
Faithful, chivalrous.
They are so dear to us,
God save our men.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That in the death of Thomas C. Rogers Prairie Grove's son, of whom she might well be proud, and we feel that his death will be an incentive for thousands of other American boys to make similar offering of themselves on the altar of human life and liberty.

Be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and also be furnished the Prairie Grove Herald for publication.

Miss Mallie Dyer,
Mrs. Julia Pyeatt,
Mrs. Laura McCormick.
