the side on the Monday night previous while assisting his father in making an arrest. After his death D. and Mack Rollins, Wm. Mitchell and James Shofner, who were under bond but had not had their preliminary examination, were re-arrested and were tried before 'Squire W.N. Scott on Tuesday and Wednesday and were bound over to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of murder in the second degree. B.R. Davidson and J.N. Tillman represented the State and J.D., J.V. and J.W. Walker the defendants. [Fayetteville Democrat 9/26/90]

ROBINSON, Romie - Little "Romie," six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, was taken as if in the arms of a tender shepherd from this world of temptation and sin to that world where dwells the one who said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me...for such is the kingdom of Heaven." The parents desire to express their thanks to the friends who have been with and helped them in their affliction. A friend. [Fayetteville Democrat 2/21/90]
