THE DADDY

On the eye of my tomorrow
Should I live or should I die
Let me say with time I borrow
That I love a special guy

And the guy I say is special
He's the guy I call my Dad
He's the anchor in this family
He gets tough when things get bad

He worked hard to be a Daddy
And I'm proud to be his child
He gave discipline when needed
He did not let me run wild

From a smile as wide as Texas
To the brow that shed his sweat
I remember love by Daddy
I won't let my kids forget

Daddy took me many places
Often he would hold my hand
Taught me how to tie shoelaces
How to sleep on Mom's divan

Yeah! My Daddy, he's my hero
I have much to thank him for Without him I'd be a zero
Just a hole without a core

If a leaf should fall before you Raise your head and see the tree
Now look down and see the bottom
That's what Daddy means to me

Now I'm thankful that he loves me
And he's there if I should call Someone special, that's my Daddy
Summer, spring, winter or fall

FILL NOT YOUR HEARTS

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow, but remember me in every tomorrow.

Remember the joy, the laughter, and the smiles, I've only gone to rest a while.

Although my leaving causes pain and grief, My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.

So dry your eyes and remember me, not as I am but as I used to be.

Because I will remember you all and look on with a smile.

Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a while.

As long as I have the love of you, I can live my life in the hearts of you.

Love, Peace, and Chicken Grease.
