
Guy Shepherd

79 a resident of Prairie Grove, went to be with his Lord on October 26, 2014 at his home. He was born October 6, 1935 in Health, Arkansas, the son of William Thomas and Alice Barker Shepherd.

Guy was a member of the Center Point Church of God. He loved to coon hunt and work in the garden where he grew the most delicious tomatoes. He also enjoyed spending time with his three grandchildren and the rest of his family and friends. He was previously employed at Fullbrights in Fayetteville and then went to work at Jones Lumber in Prairie Grove where he worked for 21 years until it closed. He then went to work at Prairie Grove Schools in 1987 where he worked until he retired.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters Teala Jane Shepherd and Velma Rose Shepherd, two brothers Elmer Shepherd and Elbert Shepherd.

Survivors include his wife of 51 years Bula Bradley Shepherd; three daughters Sharon Shepherd, Twylla Shephard and Guyla Tylor and husband Michael; three grandchildren Ethan, Mikayla and Rachel Tylor all of Prairie Grove; two sisters Dollie McCollough of Springdale, Arkansas and Hazel Hodge of Altus, Oklahoma; one brother Paul Shepherd of Farmington, Arkansas; and a host of family and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When Tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes. All filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me. As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love,
But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye.
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It almost seemed impossible, That I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, And all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile.
But when I fully realized, That this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, But here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last,
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past,
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Though there were times you did some things, You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven And now at last you're free,
So won't you take my hand And share my life with me?"
So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, inside your heart.
