

Geneva Eveline Sinor

Age 83, a resident of Farmington, Arkansas, went home to be with Jesus on Wednesday, December 27, 2023 at her home in Farmington, Arkansas. She was born November 17, 1940 in Prairie Grove, Arkansas, the daughter of Grant Lee Fate and Julia Eveline (Phillips) Vickery.

She was a shining example of who we all should strive to be. She was quick to listen and slow to speak with a meek and quiet spirit. Her life reflected the scriptures that taught about being a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She was a Proverbs 31 woman and demonstrated 1 Peter 3. She didn't waver in her faith and was eager to serve her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers Jerry Vickery and Eldon Lacey, three sisters Carma Lorenz, Helen Phillips, and Mary Lena Phillips, and one grandson Luke Lawrence.

Survivors include her husband of 67 years Paul Sinor; two daughters Connie Lawrence and Teresa Kern and husband Chris; Three grandchildren Rick Lawrence and wife Janell, Natasha Tustin and husband Drew, and Torie Rice; Seven great grandchildren Tyler Lawrence, Alec Lawrence, Tristan Lawrence, Isabella Lawrence, Isaac Tustin, Titus Tustin, and Brinly Tustin; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Wives, likewise, be submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives, when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear. Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God. For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror. 1 Peter 3:1-6

Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies. The heart of her husband safely trusts her; so he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not evil All the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and willingly works with her hands. She is like the merchant ships, She brings her food from afar. She also rises while it is yet night, and provides food for her household, and a portion for her maidservants. She considers a field and buys it; from [e]her profits she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and strengthens her arms. She perceives that her merchandise is good, and her lamp does not go out by night. She stretches out her hands to the distaff, and her hand holds the spindle. She extends her hand to the poor, yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household is clothed with scarlet. She makes tapestry for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies sashes for the merchants. Strength and honor are her clothing; she shall rejoice in time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness. She watches over the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many daughters have done well, but you excel them all." Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

MOTHER'S LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endure.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.
